

COURT OF APPEALS OF TEXAS, FIFTH DISTRICT AT DALLAS

Daniel Deanthony Felder v. State

Felder v. State · No. 05-14-01031/01032/01033-CR · Decided January 8, 2015

SUMMARY

This document is a January 8, 2015 letter from the Clerk of the Fifth District Court of Appeals in Dallas to Daniel Felder regarding his criminal appeals. It advises him that appointed counsel filed a brief asserting the appeals are frivolous and explains his right to review the appellate record and file a pro se response.

CASE DETAILS

COURT	Court of Appeals of Texas, Fifth District at Dallas
JURISDICTION	Texas
DECIDED	January 8, 2015
DOCKET	05-14-01031/01032/01033-CR
PROCEDURAL POSTURE	Appellant's appointed attorney filed a brief stating that the appeals were frivolous and without merit. The court notified appellant of his opportunity to review the appellate record and file a pro se response.
PRECEDENTIAL VALUE	unknown
PARTIES	Daniel Deanthony Felder v. The State of Texas

TOPICS

- appellate procedure
- criminal procedure

PRACTICE AREAS

- criminal procedure
- appellate procedure

KEY QUOTATIONS

“You have a right, if you so desire, to review the appellate record yourself and file a pro se response.”

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The document contains no substantive facts concerning the underlying criminal cases. It states only that appellant's attorney determined the appeals were frivolous and without merit and filed a corresponding brief.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The document concerns three criminal appeals identified by docket numbers 05-14-01031/01032/01033-CR. Appellant's attorney filed a brief asserting the appeals were frivolous and meritless, and the court gave appellant until February 9, 2015, to request access to the appellate record and file a pro se response.

Retrieved from lawtools.ai · <https://lawtools.ai/cases/state/texas-court-of-appeals-of-texas-fifth-district-at-dallas/2015/daniel-deanthony-felder-v-state-zen2vq80>