PER CURIAM.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF LOUISIANA
AARON JOHNSON CIVIL ACTION
VERSUS NO. 24-2492

KEVIN LUPER, ET AL. SECTION: “J”(1)
REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

In October 2024, while incarcerated at the Rayburn Correctional Center, plaintiff Aaron Johnson filed this federal civil rights complaint pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. On December 17, 2025, mail sent by the Court to Johnson at the Rayburn Correctional Center was returned as undeliverable and stamped “RETURN TO SENDER REFUSED UNABLE TO FORWARD.”<sup>1</sup> A handwritten notation on the envelope states “Released.”<sup>2</sup> On December 19, 2025, the Court ordered Johnson to file a written change of address.<sup>3</sup> On January 13, 2026, the copy of the order sent to Johnson at the correctional center was returned as undeliverable and stamped “RETURNED TO SENDER No Longer at RCC.”<sup>4</sup> Johnson provided no alternate private home address in the complaint, and he has not notified the Court of his current address. That failure is a direct violation of this Court’s Local Rules, which expressly provide: “Each attorney and pro se litigant has a continuing obligation promptly to notify the court of any address or telephone number change.” Local Rule 11.1. Moreover, it is clear that Johnson was in fact aware of that obligation, in that his complaint included the following declaration: “I understand that if I am released or transferred, it is my 1 R. Doc. 22. 2 Id. 3 R. Doc. 23. 4 R. Doc. 24. responsibility to keep the Court informed of my whereabouts and failure to do so may result in this action being dismissed with prejudice.”<sup>5</sup> This Court’s Local Rules provide: The failure of an attorney or pro se litigant to notify the court of a current e-mail or postal address may be considered cause for dismissal for failure to prosecute when a notice is returned to the court because of an incorrect address and no correction is made to the address for a period of 35 days from the return. Local Rule 41.3.1. As already noted, more than thirty-five days ago, mail sent to Johnson at the Rayburn Correction Center, was returned by the United States Postal Service as undeliverable. A recent search of Louisiana’s Vinelink inmate database reflects that Johnson was released from custody on November 11, 2025.<sup>6</sup> In the light of the foregoing, it is appropriate to dismiss Johnson's complaint for want of prosecution. The authority of a federal trial court to dismiss a plaintiff's action because of failure to prosecute is clear. Link v. Wabash R.R., 370 U.S. 626 (1962); McCullough v. Lynaugh, 835 F.2d 1126 (5th Cir. 1988). The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure specifically provide that a court may, in its discretion, dismiss a plaintiff's action for failure to prosecute or for failure to comply with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or any order of the court. Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b). The Court's power to dismiss for want of prosecution should be used sparingly, although it may be exercised sua sponte whenever necessary to achieve the orderly and expeditious disposition of cases. Ramsay v. Bailey, 531 F.2d 706, 707 (5th Cir. 1976). Because Johnson is proceeding pro se, the Court need consider only his conduct in determining whether dismissal is proper under Rule 41(b). Here, Johnson has not provided the 5 R. Doc. 1 at 8. 6 <https://vinelink.com/person-detail/offender/2413119;tabIndexToSelect=0>. Court with his current address despite being aware of his obligation to do so. Due solely to his failure, this Court has no way to advance this case on the docket. This delay is caused by and attributable to Johnson himself, justifying dismissal of his complaint for failure to prosecute. See Torns v. State of Miss. Dept. of Corrs., 262 F. App'x 638, 639 (Sth Cir. 2008); Raborn v. Inpatient Mgt. Partners, Inc., 278 F. App'x 402, 404-05 (Sth Cir. 2008). Accordingly, his complaint should be dismissed for failure to prosecute.

RECOMMENDATION

It is therefore RECOMMENDED that Aaron Johnson's complaint be DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE for failure to prosecute. A party's failure to file written objections to the proposed findings, conclusions, and recommendation in a magistrate judge's report and recommendation within fourteen (14) days after being served with a copy shall bar that party, except upon grounds of plain error, from attacking on appeal the unobjected-to proposed factual findings and legal conclusions accepted by the district court, provided that the party has been served with notice that such consequences will result from a failure to object. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); Douglass v. United Services Auto. Ass'n, 79 F.3d 1415, 1430 (Sth Cir. 1996) (en banc). New Orleans, Louisiana, this 22nd day of January, 2026.
