QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Whether Defendant's amended responses to Requests for Admission Nos. 1, 2, and 5 complied with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 36 such that the requests should not be deemed admitted.
2. Whether Plaintiff was entitled to Rule 11 sanctions based on Defendant's motion to extend scheduling deadlines.
3. Whether Defendant was entitled to recover its attorneys' fees and costs incurred in responding to Plaintiff's sanctions motion.

HOLDINGS

1. The amended responses complied with Rule 36, and the Court would not deem Requests for Admission Nos. 1, 2, and 5 admitted.
2. Plaintiff was not entitled to Rule 11 sanctions because he failed to show that Defendant's motion contained frivolous legal contentions, unsupported factual contentions, or was presented for an improper purpose.
3. The Court declined at that time to award Defendant the fees and costs it incurred in responding to Plaintiff's sanctions motion.

KEY QUOTATIONS

“Although a party may request the admission of the application of law to fact, id., requests for the admission of pure legal conclusions are impermissible” (at 2)

“However, Rule 11 “does not apply to disclosures and discovery requests, responses, objections, and motions under Rules 26 through 37.”” (at 5)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Defendant's amended responses partially admitted Requests for Admission Nos. 1, 2, and 5 but declined to admit or deny certain matters because Defendant lacked reasonable access to information concerning whether the underlying obligation was incurred primarily for personal, family, or household purposes. Defendant also stated that it lacked a handwritten-signed agreement while asserting that it possessed documents substantiating the debt, ownership, and Plaintiff's obligation to pay. Defendant sought a 30-day extension of deadlines based in part on the volume of discovery, defense counsel's surgery and recovery, the holiday season, and the need to complete discovery; the Court found good cause and granted the extension.

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Plaintiff previously moved to determine the sufficiency of Defendant's responses to requests for admission, and the Court partially granted and partially denied that motion, ordering amended responses to Requests for Admission Nos. 1, 2, and 5. Defendant served amended responses. Defendant later moved for a 30-day extension of scheduling deadlines, which the Court granted for good cause. Plaintiff then moved to deem the requests admitted and sought Rule 11 sanctions based on Defendant's motion for an extension.

DISPOSITION
